Best Practices : 2018-19

1. The institution conducts Concept enrichment programme to refresh the learners of the basics of each optional subject.
2. Organising workshop on Theatre Pedagogy was organised to facilitate the students to come out of their shells, to get rid of their inhibitions and finally to familiarise with others. This workshop exposed them to different theatre techniques that could be used as a strategic tool for effective teaching-learning.
3. Two day campus interviews were conducted in the college on 15th February 2019 and 28th March 2019 by three educational institutes. About 200 students participated in it and 26 students were shortlisted.
4. Three alumni meets were organised by the college 1982-83, 1990-91 and 1996-97 batch students gathered in the college and interact with present students.
5. Snehasammelan / Gathering of the college was organized from 27 th November to 08 th December. Various games, competitions and cultural programs were organized for the students and the students were honoured with various prizes / certificates.
6. All the students, teachers and non-teaching staff of the college actively participated in the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan organized by Aurangabad Municipal Corporation from 1st March 2019 to 2nd March 2019.
